

Name of the organization : Maharashtra Association of Anthropological Science
Name and Address and Contact no of the contact person:- Prof. R. K. Mutatkar. 64, Anand Park, Aundh, Pune – 411007, Maharashtra. Phone – 020-25884150, 020-25897298 (Fax), E-mail :- maaschrd@vsnl.net
Title of the proposal: - Assessment of Mainstreaming of AYUSH under NRHM.
Area of operation :- all districts of Maharashtra states. (Area of Implementation) :- Maharashtra State.
Objectives	Details of Project Launched	Deliverables expected from the proposal	Fund released	UC position	Major points of field visits	Remarks
1. To understand ground realities of AYUSH in Public health system and in the private sector, voluntary sector and the indigenous health care, at the community and household level. 2. To assess the roles of paramedic and traditional herbal in the use of AYUSH in curative, preventive and promotive care with focus on women and child health. 3. To assess the training and IEC material in terms of AYUSH. 4. To assess the significance of plural therapy and cross referral between allopathic and AYUSH stream. 5. To assess mechanisms of CME for positioning AYUSH in the mainstreaming of Health care.	The proposal had been considered in the meeting of Project Approval Committee on 20.12.2007. The Committee had approved the proposal with financial outlay of Rs.24. 60 lakhs. Rs. 19.68 lakhs has been released as 1st installment in 2007-08.	1. Standardized the methodology of such studies. 2. Identify the strengths and gaps in the use of plural therapy in Public health. 3. Identify training, orientation and IEC requirements of medical and paramedical personnel and up scaling of local healers and such personnel as ASHA, AWW, Dai etc. 4. Identify the role of PRI, NGOs, CBOs in integrating plural therapy in rural homes. 5. Document utilization of indigenous healing practices and customs in the households about preventive, promotive and curative needs. Identify the nodal role of Anganwadi in Women and Child health including adolescent health.	Rs. 19.68 lakhs has been released as 1 st installment in 2007-08.	The UC of 1 st installment issued by the Department in 2009-10.	No field visit has been performed till date.	The organization has not requested for 2 nd installment. The project has been closed.

