

Name of the organization: Kerala Voluntary Health Association.
1. Name and Address and Contact no of the contact person:- Kerala Voluntary Health Association, Mullankuzi Collectorate, P.O. - Kottayam , Kerala. Pin – 686002, keralavhs@yahoo.co.in Contact No – 0481-2572781.
Title of the proposal: - Community Centered health promotion through traditional indigenous and alternative health system.
Area of operation :- Kolam and Idukki districts of Kerala. (Area of Implementation):- Kottayam, Kerala.
Objectives	Details of Project Launched	Deliverables expected from the proposal	Fund released	UC position	Major points of field visits	Remark
1. Identify, preserve, documented and promote traditional and indigenous health knowledge of community and upgrades it with technical support from AYUSH institutions and professionals. 2. To promote community level volunteers to impact traditional and indigenous knowledge which are technically and professionally approved by ASYUSH Department to unserved and under served areas of population. 3. To initiate school centered health promotion activities by inculcating the habit of traditional and indigenous health practices. 4. To act as an extension hands of AYUSH Department / Institutions. 5. To initiate community groups	The proposal has been considered in the meeting of Project Approval Committee chaired by the Secretary (AYUSH) on 17.9.2010. In the said the meeting the following decisions have been taken by the Committee. The Committee has approved the proposal subject to the following conditions. 1) The organization will contact with the District Medical Officer in-Charge and State Directorate of AYUSH, Kerala for implementing the project. 2) Proper monitoring should be done by the Department of AYUSH. 3) Rs. 20 lakhs may be approved for the period of 1 year. 4) As the approved amount is small, 80% of the total amount i.e. Rs. 18 lakhs may be released this year.	1. To conduct Participatory Rural Appraisal and identify Traditional and Indigenous knowledge and resource persons. 2. Provide technological & Professional upgradation of the documents. 3. Workshop of AYUSH professionals and traditional resource persons on the above documents. 4. Identify volunteers 5. Training of volunteers : 6. Developing linkage with AYUSH Institutions 7. Special supplementary curriculum on traditional and indigenous health practices. 8. Training to teachers and parents. 9. Supplementary	Rs. 18 lakhs has been released as 1st installment in 2010-11. The remaining amount will be released after getting the UC and working report of 1st installment.	UC of 1st installment awaited.	The organization has not been visited

and trained them in preparing traditional and herbal first aid medicines and promote it as an incoming generation nd health promotion means. To identify traditional / indigenous / tribal health resource personals and disseminator the knowledge to entire community.	The following conditions may be included in Sanction letter. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Target population should be well defined and specific. b) Problem / disease which is to be targeted should be well defined. c) Efficacy of the intervention should be documented. d) Base line Survey: - (Use of Secondary data is permissible). e) End line data: Objectives to be quantified & defined. f) Base line and End line Data should be shared with the Department of AYUSH. 	classes.
--	---	-----------------	--	--	--	--